Sometimes I'm not here at all
I feel life is too formal
And I should be getting better
I'm just a fantasy that smiles through the day
I'm just a poor boy that still gets his way
(Chorus)
Everybody lives to die
Looking through the same brown eyes
I can't see them anymore
Sometimes, when it's raining in my heart
I feel I want to depart
And I should be getting wetter
I'm sitting all alone now with my hands across my chest
I feel it could get better
If we make the best of the best
(Chorus)
(Chorus)
What do you think it's coming to
When all I want is a drink to see it through
I don't know what to do.
(Chorus)
(Chorus)
(Guitar solo)
Aah everybody, everybody, everybody
Aah everybody, everybody, everybody
Aah everybody, everybody, everybody
Aah everybody, everybody, everybody
(Chorus)
(Chorus)
(Chorus)
(Chorus)
I can't see them anymore!
