Verse I

Yes there were those times when I got lonely,
I'd fall down on my knees and say a prayer.
If you'd only known how far I'd come to find you,
Then you'd know why my heart knew you'd be out there.
It's like someone watching over me, as I wished upon a star,
Heard my cries to bring you here to tonight, no matter where you are.

Chorus

Please catch me,
I'm falling,
Can't you hear our destiny calling?
I am so in love with you
Like daybreak,
Needs sunshine,
Come and feed this hunger of mine,
That's burning deep inside of me.
You're everything, I ever hoped you'd be.

Verse II

Someone told me once love lives forever
It lingers like the smell of sweet perfume
My heart belonged to you the day I met you
And I knew this love I had for you was true.
It's like magic soaring up above, when angels take to flight
You've brought me high above their wings, the way I feel tonight.

Chorus

Please catch me,
I'm falling,
Can't you hear our destiny calling?
I am so in love with you!
Like daybreak,
Needs sunshine,
Come and feed this hunger of mine,
That's burning deep inside of me.
You're everything, I ever hoped you'd be.

Bridge

A dream becomes reality when your heart it just won't rest
A voice kept calling deep inside to hold out for the best.

Chorus (Key change)

Please catch me,
I'm falling,
Can't you hear our destiny calling?
I am so in love with you!
Like daybreak,
Needs sunshine,
Come and feed this hunger of mine,
That's burning deep inside of me.

You're everything, oh you're everything, girl you're everything I ever hoped you'd be.
You're everything, oh you're everything, girl you're everything I ever hoped you'd be.
I ever hoped you'd be... yeah...
