Your breath on my skin
My name on your lips
The way your eyes own me
Well I'm yours only

You make me feel like a woman, yeah
Safe enough to just let go
The way you touch me, like I was born for your hands
You make me feel like a woman
'Cause you love me like a man

Never have to fight for your attention, no
You erase my inhibitions
Oh, your arms consume me
Completely, yeah

You make me feel like a woman, yeah, yeah
Safe enough to lose control
Oh, the way you touch me, like I was born for your hands
You make me feel like a woman
'Cause you love me like a man

Yeah

You make me feel like a woman, yeah yeah
Safe enough to just let go
Oh, the way you touch me, like I was born for your
hands
Oh, you make me feel like a woman
Yes, you do
You make me feel like a woman
'Cause you love me like a man
