"I love to make you mine
'Cause it's the only way to hold you
In my wild imagination

Still you don't know how
To grab a chance and spend some time
In just a simple conversation

Just give it a try
Though I'm like chasing rainbows in the sky
I wanna hold you in my dreams
And make believe that it's true
Although I know
I know that it's impossible to do
'Cause you're a star
People love you as you are
You're a million miles away from me

I wish that you were here
'Cause it's illusion every time you're close to me
And sing my love songs

'Cause it's the only way I could tell the world
"I love you"
Although you're a million miles away

Just give it a try
Though I'm like chasing rainbows in the sky
I wanna hold you in my dreams
And make believe that it's true
Although I know
I know that it's impossible to do
'Cause you're a star
You're a star..
You're a star..

Just give it a try
Though I'm like chasing rainbows in the sky
I wanna hold you in my dreams
And make believe that it's true
Although I know

I know that it's impossible to do
'Cause you're a star
You're a star..
You're a star..

A million miles away from me...
