It's a fact, love is a gamble
It's a fact, love is a gamble
Maybe I got it too much
Maybe I got it inside
And if you've got love together
Well that's alright with me
The more that they write about it
I'm gonna mend this song of life
I've got the nerve to sing about it
I never joke and never ask why
So maybe we go together
Maybe I hear it fast
Maybe I get the message
Maybe I see it last
It's a fact, love is a gamble
It's a fact, love is a gamble
Take away what you got
And what your life is left with nothing
Take away what you believe
And they you hope this side of nothing
Take away what you feel
Nobody can stop you suffering
It's a fact, love is a gamble
It's a fact, love is a gamble
First time take away
Second time take away
Everybody want it, pull pull together
First time take away
Second time take away
Everybody want it, pull pull together
Take away what you got
Take away what you believe
And they you hope this side of nothing
Take away what you feel
Nobody can stop you suffering
Nobody can stop you suffering
First time take away
Second time take away
Everybody want it, pull pull together
First time take away
Second time take away

Everybody want it, pull pull together
It's a fact (first time take away, second time take away)
Love is a gamble (everybody want it, pull pull together)
It's a fact (first time take away, second time take away)
Love is a gamble (everybody want it, pull pull together)
