Your eyes are chandeliers
Behind the gilded heavens
Your kiss is revelation verses
I want to find
From when you're suffering
I'm suffering with you

Put me out of misery now
The wave is breaking
Will of making

In the ravaged years
This will mean so much to us
In the ravaged years
So far so good

Your world is lashed
By storms unbreaking in the ashes
Your love will drag you dear
In borders off the haughs
And with your cuts I bleed is Only I can breathe

Put me out of misery now
The wave is breaking
Will of making

In the ravaged years
This will mean so much to us
In the ravaged years
So far so good
