There's nothing to fear but fear itself and you There's nothing I'm a man but the passing time and you
And always laughing, always smiling, always everywhere but with me

And I'm resigned to be haunted by your face
And see your name all over the place
A vision oh so blue
Impossibility is you

I'd go to land
I'd go to any length
If it's all in my mind then I don't have the strength
To face resistance
Go the distance
With another ghost inside of me

But I know I'm gonna be Haunted by your face
And see your name all over the place
A vision oh so blue
Impossibility is you

I guess my only hope is if I die
I'd go to heaven
There's a street where we can meet

I choose resistance
I choose my distance
I can always choose to be free

'Cause it's not my choice to be haunted by your face
And see your name all over the place
My vision oh so blue
Impossibility is you

I see your name all over the place
Impossibility is you

'Cause my only hope is if I die
I'd go to heaven

There's a street where we can meet
