La la la la la la
Oh, la la la la la

The sounds of your voice in the night
They keep haunting me
The sounds of your voice late at night
They won't let me be

In the still, did I hear a sound
A whisper like a ghost in my heart
It's so quiet, no one's around
I won't sleep tonight
I won't even start

It's so complicated these days
I wonder did we need to Leave things this way

The sounds of your voice in the night
They won't let me be

I don't care where I'm sleeping
I don't care where I am
This frustration I feel each night
Will leave me a desperate man

But in my mind, I call your name

The sounds of your voice in the night
They keep calling me
The sounds of your voice in the night
They won't let me be

I wonder where you are
And if you feel all right
And I wonder if you're gone this time
Cause somehow, I'll get
Right through this night

I can't hear the sound
Of your voice in the night
They won't let me be

The sounds of your voice in the night
Na na na na na

The sounds of your voice
I wonder where you were last night
I wonder if you feel all right

The sounds of your voice
La la la la la... yeah, yeah...
The sounds of your voice

Where are they when I needed you
Oh, oh, I wonder where you were
I wonder where you are
Na na na na...
