If you let your feelings go, dear
It's scary what you'll find
I find them on your street, dear
And you're always on my mind

No one needs to know that you let me in tonight
That you let me see the world behind your eyes, behind your eyes

I want to see us work, dear
To reach the other side
My treachery is love, dear
We're on both ends of the fight

We're fighting for ourselves, we're fighting for our lives
Won't you let me see the world behind your eyes
Behind your eyes, behind your eyes?

No one needs to know how scared we are tonight
Won't you let me see the world?
Won't you let me see the world behind your eyes?
Won't you let me see the world behind your eyes
Behind your eyes?
