You act like you wonder,
If I know if I know right from wrong,
Believe me, I understand.

We all want the same things,
From this crowded room.
But I am who I am.

And I am haunted by the things that you're saying to
me,
As we smile into the faces of our enemies.
And I'll try to defend our lives,
So you'll understand.
That I won't let you down.

I get so defensive,
Because I try so hard,
Believe me I understand.

I only ever got this far,
Because I am who I am.

And I am haunted by the things that you're saying to
me,
As we smile into the faces of our enemies.
And I'll try to defend our lives,
I will try to defend our lives,
So you'll understand.
That I won't let you down.

(Hey)

I am haunted by the things that you're saying to me,
As we smile into the faces of our enemies.
And I'll try to defend our lives,
I will try to defend our lives,
I will try to defend our lives,
So you'll understand.
That I won't let you down.
