Come sit with your angels,
And give us some time,
Forgive us this fragile frame of mind,
It's all right.
'Cause it's difficult changes for each in our turn,
And baby your angels they never learn,
No we never learned...

Rain is gonna come down
Change is gonna come 'round.

We're given these moments,
We're given this time,
And we do what we must just,
Just to get by,
Just to stay high and dry
And as sure as these blue skies they're gonna turn gray.
You've given your angels all of your days
Oh but you can't stay...

Rain is gonna come down
Change is gonna come 'round.

Rain is gonna come down
Change is gonna come 'round
