You can dance your life away

The sun sets on a Saturday night
And the keys are in my hand
Jamie says that she wants to stay in
But she just don't understand

I worked all week at the restaurant
And I just need to cut loose, footloose
So if you feel like me, get your brand new shoes
Meet me at first avenue

No excuses
Let the music rock your body right

No more sorrow
We might not be here tomorrow
So just live for the moment
And dance your life away

The clock says it's a quarter past two
But we just don't wanna leave
If we can't dance on the ceiling
We'll be dancing in the street

No excuses
Let the music rock your body right

No more sorrow
We might not be here tomorrow
So just live for the moment
And dance your life away

No excuses
Let the music rock your body right

No more sorrow
We might not be here tomorrow
So let's live for the moment
And dance your life away

No more sorrow

We might not be here tomorrow
So just live for the moment
And dance your life away
Oh, you can dance
Can dance your life away
