We've been down this road once before guessing what's behind every door I know it doesn't make much sense but I can't change the way it is mirrors on the walls all agree I'm looking at myself and I can't see any reason why you should stay here you're so good it's out of place baby, there's so much that I don't know it's crazy everything I started with is fading so I will lock my eyes to yours cause you are what I'm here for talking to myself once again there are days when I won't let you in buying time I keep you in suspense I realize it makes no sense

baby, there's so much that I don't know it's crazy
everything I started with is fading

shout out, the future's so unsure when you're the only one I'm living for dark clouds, the rain can only pour

baby, there's so much that I don't know it's crazy
fading into space and stars this is who we are now lately you're the one who's doing all the saving I'm looking 'round it's only complicating so I will lock my eyes to yours
