I should have listened to your advice
But you'll never look behind me, never think twice
Now I wait for you to whisper in my ear
Saying that you're just a friend
Ain't what I long to hear

Goodbye Amanda Grace
Goodbye Amanda Grace
Goodbye Amanda Grace
It's a drag in second place

It's funny how time can change your fate
Now it seems I'm the captain
And you're my first mate
But your ship has come and gone
Now I have to tell you
There's no where to this place

Goodbye Amanda Grace
Goodbye Amanda Grace
Goodbye Amanda Grace
It's a drag in second place

When every day is done
There's a fool in everyone
There's a fool in everyone
And I'm your smoking gun

Goodbye Amanda Grace
Goodbye Amanda Grace
Goodbye Amanda Grace
It's a drag in second place
It's a drag in second place
It's a drag in second place
