If I could make my silence understood
We could be on the brink of something good
So I'll pretend to question what I already know
Try and believe you'll miss me if I go

And I feel like I should Sometimes I think I could

I wanna close the window; I can scream out loud
To all the wrong things that I'm saying now

'Cause I feel like I should
'Cause you wish I would

But if I say I love you and if I lay it out
What if you say you love me to see how it sounds

But if you still can hear me, what would it prove?
Just to break the silence I'm holding on to Hold, hold...

If I feel like I should Because you wish I would

But if I say I love you and if I lay it out
What if you say you love me just 'cause you like the sound
But if you still can hear me, what would it prove?
Just to break the silence I'm holding on to

If I could make my silence understood
We could be on the brink of something good
