"Burning Clean"

Pleasure over principle
Is an open throated grave
It consumes you
With ideas it portrays

The latest trends and fashions
Completely stripped of passion
I separate myself from anything
That doesn't bare your name

Burning clean
From everything I used to be
Burning clean
From everything I used to be

Apathy reminds me
That I just don't care
About a life of love for you
About the times we shared

How long can I live
With blinders on, yeah?
Remove these scales from my eyes
I give you my life

Burning clean
From everything I used to be
Burning clean
From everything I used to be

Reach inside pull it out
Anything that makes me doubt
I'll never be what I should be

Burning clean
From everything I used to be
Burning clean
From everything I used to be

Separation from these patterns
Transformation is all that matters

Separate myself
Burning clean
