"Desensitized"

Subliminal images crawl upon my screen
Taking what is meant for good
And making it obscene

I'm growing numb
But what is wrong and what is right
When did I start to lose this fight?
Somehow I lost track of who you are

I'm so amazed at what sin's become
I'm so ashamed that I've grown so numb
Somehow I became desensitized
I don't want to be desensitized

Justify the reasons why
I stare through my calloused eyes
I'm hollowed out, spiraled down
Slave to my own demise

I'm growing numb
But what is wrong and what is right
When did I start to lose this fight?
Somehow I lost track of who you are

I'm so amazed at what sin's become
I'm so ashamed that I've grown so numb
Somehow I became desensitized
I don't want to be desensitized

So what is wrong and what is right
When did I start to lose this fight?
Somehow I lost track of who you are

I'm so amazed at what sin's become
I'm so ashamed that I've grown so numb
Somehow I became desensitized
I don't want to be desensitized
I don't want to be desensitized
