Peel back the scars
Let blood flow through my heart
Something's gotta give
Something's gotta give

The winner takes all
It's double for nothing this time
And letting them down
Is not what I had in mind
Let's do it right this time
Love defeats spite this time

It feels like life's been wasted
With all these things we've tasted
It doesn't mean a thing
Without love there's no song to sing
It seems we've been sedated
With actions over-rated
It doesn't mean a thing
Without love there's no song to sing

Wake up, it's time
To rattle the cages of those who've been walking blind
Something's about to give
Something's about to give

Whoever told you that love is a weakness
Love is the energy beating inside of your chest
I think its time we learn
This cannot be earned

It feels like life's been wasted
With all these things we've tasted
It doesn't mean a thing
Without love there's no song to sing
It seems we've been sedated
With actions over-rated
It doesn't mean a thing
Without love there's no song to sing
Without love there's no song to sing

It feels like life's been wasted
With all these things we've tasted
It doesn't mean a thing
Without love there's no song to sing
It seems we've been sedated
With actions over-rated
It doesn't mean a thing
Without love there's no song to sing
Without love there's no song to sing
