I'm the same ol'g I use to be
Ain't trippin' like no other
I'm the same ol'g I use to be
Your boy, your son, your brotha'
I'm the ace of spafes that's up to your sleeve
No joker that could fold me
The same ol'g I'll always be
Until the coffin holds me, holds me
I'm the same ol'g I use to be
Still throwin' drown my rhythm
The same ol'g I use to be
Still learnin' as I'm leavin'
Don't bother tryin to map me out
'cause you will never know me
The same ol'g I'll always be
Until the coffin holds me
Hangs up
Never really had me
Held up
In the baggage line up
Suck it up and
Be on my way
Live for today
No shake down
Could ever make my mind
Break down
Shut my eyes, let the music wrap 'round
My head, my bed
My livin' to play and playin' today
Take me or leave me
My heart ain't on line this time
Can't make you believe me
Somehow your bound to find in time...
I'm every thing wrong you realle
Don't want me to be...
I'm the same ol'g
