It's hard to say what I wanna say
Though you're next to me, I reach for you
But you just turn your back on me, tomorrow comes
You'll pack your things and then you'll leave
We fell apart and it's killing me

Show me, I want to get closer
And tell me how to hold you forever
'Cause I don't think that I'll survive on my own
Oh I'm ready, willing to learn, show me how to love

I didn't really understand until tonight
That I was wrong, you let me try to make it right
'Cause I need you to turn to me
Oh let's not fight 'cause I can't, I can't let you go

Show me, I want to get closer
And tell me how to hold you forever
'Cause I don't think that I'll survive on my own
Oh I'm ready, willing to learn

I know that you believe that we should be together
I see it through the tears in your eyes
Oh, and I know I should've tried so much harder
Baby yeah, to let you know how I'm feeling inside

Oh, you got to show me, I want to get closer
And tell me baby how to hold you forever
'Cause I don't think that I'll survive on my own
Oh I'm ready, willing to learn

You've got to show me, I want to get closer
And tell me baby, how to hold you forever
I don't think that I'll survive on my own
Oh, I'm ready willing to learn
Show me how to love, show me how to love
