"Until Death Do Us Part"

I was nothing before, still I stand here today
As a keeper of dreams, till the night fades away
Je l'aime Ã mourir
You can tell me again, all the reasons to leave
But with a touch of her hand, she can make me believe
That I belong here, yes I belong here
Je l'aime Ã mourir

Not a moment ago, I was only a man
But she fills me with more, in a way no one can
Je l'aime Ã mourir
When she catches my eye, all the light from the sun
Seems to wither and die, next to all she's become
I am without fear, and I would die here
Je l'aime Ã mourir

It isn't fair, you know
Why should I care?
There are a million just like me
It isn't fair, you know
Why should she care,
And live to be, the world to me

She is all I've become, she is all that I need
And she makes me feel one, with the air that I breathe
Je l'aime Ã mourir
Sometimes we're apart, Sometimes I'm astray
It's the beat of her heart, in the music I play
That keeps me sincere, through all these long years
je l'aime Ã mourir

I could cry for her eyes, like a child in the cold
And I will live by her side, till the day I am old
Je l'aime Ã mourir
When you find someone strong, someone inside your heart
And when she takes you beyond, "until death do us part"
you'll know what I mean, why I would die here
Je l'aime Ã mourir

It isn't fair, you know
Why should I care?
There are a million just like me
It isn't fair, you know
Why should she care,
And live to be, the world to me

I was nothing before, still I stand here today
As a keeper of dreams, till the night fades away
Je l'aime Ã mourir
You can tell me again, all the reasons to leave
But with a touch of her hand, she can make me believe
That I belong here, I would die here
Je l'aime Ã mourir
