I'm waiting for you right outside
The place we first locked eyes, oh
I feel like we're both losing sight
We don't get to do this twice and I wonder

Will you care when I'm gone?
And it's time and I've really had enough
And I'm sorry for the trouble

It's been costing us so much
Splitting apart, it's getting harder to tell what you want
So bored with these games, games

The last time that I left these steps
Was after our first kiss
I wonder why you haven't shown
I'll be leaving here alone and I wonder

Will you care when I'm gone?
And it's time and I've really had enough
And I'm sorry for the trouble

It's been costing us so much
Splitting apart, it's getting harder to tell what you want
So bored with these games, games

(So bored with these games, games)
Splitting apart, it's getting harder to tell what you want
So bored with this

(So bored with these games, games)
Splitting apart, it's getting harder to tell what you want
So bored with this

(So bored with these games, games)
Splitting apart, it's getting harder to tell what you want
So bored with this

I'm left in the dark
I never thought you could be breaking my heart
I'm so bored with these games, games

Will you care when I'm gone?
And it's time and I've really had enough
And I'm sorry for the trouble

It's been costing us so much
Splitting apart, getting harder to tell what you want
So bored with these games, games
Games, oh games, oh yeah, games
