Hollywood, as time was tickin'
we were winning
and it all was going as planned politicians stand between our lines of making headlines street signs saying your going the wrong way fading
faster now.

and make us fall apart but the fire's in our hearts
reminisce on memories
cuz we're gone
don't forget to
hold back your thoughts
and live like robots
cuz we all know what goes on reminisce our memories
cuz we're gone
we're gone
so gone

fallin soldiers
all around us
but we're still standing strong embarrassing and contradicting cuz now we're making headlines primetime saying what a story billboards packed tours don't forget

we're gone

game over
your done
we won
pack our bags yeah we'll run Hollywood here we come
