Word on the street is that you aren't into me anymore
You promise you'd come to me anytime, anywhere
That was before
But I'm getting by?

CHORUS

But you're making it seem Like I'm letting you down
And telling your friends
That I'm never around
How can I find the right things to say?
I don't even know that you're feeling this way
Baby, I'm tired of letting you down

It's a shame that you're lying
You keep on denying you tell me it's cool
You told all our secrets and weaknesses baby I feel like a fool
Oooh and all the signs I've been reading between the lines
From the start, I gave you my heart

CHORUS

I've played these games before
And we know better
We want to live and talk and stay together

I'm trying to change your mind
But you're hiding all the time
You know it's true?
I'm crazy for you?

[Talking]

I'll try to be alright just stay around

How can I find the right things to say?
I don't even know that you're feeling this way
Baby, I'm tired of letting you down

Don't even know that I'm letting you down

Tell your momma, your daddy, your sister
You tell ?em that I'm letting you down girl

How can I find the right things to say?
I don't even know that you're feeling this way
Baby, I'm tired of letting you down

Tell your momma, your daddy, your sister
You tell ?em that I'm letting you down girl [x6]
