Time has come to an end
This world has started to go
Do not worry because if you try
You are in God's hands
(Believe in miracles)
No more letters to send
No more green earth life
It's the end my dear, dear friend
Hope we'll all be fine

It's the end of the world
It's the end of the time
It's the end of the Generation
It's the end of life
But what you can do is pray
Tell God to save the world
Don't you worry, Hope you'll be alright
Believe in miracles
(Miracles)

No More Clouds
No More Trees
No More Rain or Snow
No More Seeds
(Believe in Miracles)
No more of this Planet
We love it so much
You pray for life but can you
Ever get it back
Cause I know

It's the end of the world
It's the end of the time
It's the end of the Generation
It's the end of life
But what you can do is pray
Tell God to save the world
Don't you worry, Hope you'll be alright
Believe in miracles

Miracles

It's the end, but don't be so sad
This is really it
We use to have sweet dreams
We Believe in what we see

It's the end of the world
It's the end of the time
It's the end of the Generation
It's the end of life
But what you can do is pray
Tell God to save the world
Believe in miracles
