Yeah! Yea-aah!

Oh, oh

Yeah! Yea-aah!

Oh, oh

Try to fall asleep tonight
I lay awake and dream of a life
Where we thought
We could make it
We wasted all our time
And I wouldn't change a single thing
I know...

We get closer and closer again
But we're falling apart
I'm losing, you're losing a friend
It's always over before we start
Your eyes keep our love
And I wish that it could be
The way it was
Well, it's over
There's no one to blame
It will never be the same

Two wrongs don't make it right
Two hearts are on the line
Maybe we could have made it
If we waited and time is right
In the end I'm a friend
But that's all I am to you

We get closer and closer again
But we're falling apart
I'm losing, you're losing a friend
It's always over before we start
Your eyes keep our love
And I wish that it could be
The way it was
Well, it's over
There's no one to blame
It will never be the same
No, it will never be the same

We get closer and closer again
But we're falling apart
I'm losing, you're losing a friend
It's always over before we start
Your eyes keep our love
And I wish I believed you
But it's easy to see
That it's over
There's no one to blame
No, it will never be the same (We'll never be the same)

It's over
There's no one to blame
And it'll never be the same
It's over
It's over
It's over
