You are mine. Mine forever. I've always wanted you and i told you i'd be true. The other night i got my guitar out.

I thought of your beautiful blue eyes and your dark brown hair. I said "Why can't she be here?" i need to see you or i'll go crazy hey maybe i can call you and say goodnight i need you and i promise i am true

I saw you on a thursday i believe it was march 19 2002. i miss you i hope you know i care when i saw you the first thing i noticed was your simle and your shiny brown hair i need you tonight i am thinking of your dark brown hair and your sweet blue eyes i said "Why can't she be here?" i need to see you or i'll go CRAZY oh hey maybe i can call you to say good night i need you and i promise to be true i need you i want you i am true to you forever and for always i need you i want you i am so telling the truth oh oh true

I think of you every day and every night i need you and i am telling the truth

true
