"Your Heart"

When I'm down in the mornin,
all I see is your heart
You love me but,
you just can't admit it Yeah
When you tell me what to do,
I feel like I wanna hold your heart.
There's nothing better than you, yeah.
You always say your sorry.
You have such a good heart.
You're never too tough,
you're never too rough.
When you're around the edge,
All I can see is your heart again, yeah yeah!
Never ignoring me,
You love-love-love me.
I can never fight with you.
I know it 'cause it's true.
