Iâve got this picture of you and me, laying perfectly still,
Laying perfectly still
And I do believe I need to out a notice, saying that the shot was out of focus
If I could just go back too
One year three weeks, the camera wouldnât have missed my eyes so fixed
On a girl, that seemed so out of reach and so she came to me

A little bit closer, A little bit closer and took my hand stretched
It a little bit farther, a little bit farther
And then

Ohh I know

I canât take my eyes off of you, canât take my eyes off of youâ...

I have this thought of you and me, beneath a cloudless sky, in the month before July
And I know that it sounds crazy, cause I get to far ahead of my own life, but itâs alright

And Itâll get harder, itâll get darker
But weâll still have light
A little bit bright, a little bit lighter, in time

Ohh I know

I canât take my eyes off of you, canât take my eyes off of youâ...
