The tallest tree can be contained
Within the smallest seed
A tiny leaf can do the greatest
Things with a little breeze
You can stand tall child
Even with your shaking knees
Climb the branches to the top
And tell me what you see

Stand tall
Stand tall
Keep your head up
Keep your head
Keep your head up
Keep it up
Keep your head up
Keep your head
Keep your head

We're all so different
We're like branches and leaves
That never quite realized
We're a part of the same tree
And I will be there child
If you ever scrape your knees
Climb the branches to the top
And tell me what you see

Stand tall
Stand tall
Keep your head up
Keep your head
Keep your head up
Keep it up
Keep your head up
Keep your head
Keep your head

Stand tall
Stand tall
Keep your head up

Keep your head
Keep your head up
Keep it up
Keep your head up
Keep your head
