Two different worlds
Somehow
Find a way to come together
Movin' so close
Until now
And we find ourselves alone
So it's one more lonely night
I tried to feel like it was over

Just the thought of losing you
And the emptiness is more than I can take
Livin' without lovin' you
My senses all break down
Girl I'm lost at just the thought of losin' you

All of my life
No one else
Ever meant enough to hold me
I've been afraid of myself
And the way I needed you
You've been waiting much too long
I don't need to think it over

Just the thought of losing you
And the emptiness is more than I can take
Livin' without lovin' you
My senses all break down
Girl I'm lost at just the thought of losin' you
You've been waiting much too long
I don't need to think it over

Just the thought of losing you
And the emptiness is more than I can take
Livin' without lovin' you
My senses all break down
Girl I'm lost at just the thought of losin' you
