You've never had a great big battle
Until you've battled Galactica
The ragtag fleet is a little bit rattletrap
Please don't battle Galactica
Adama is a world-weary, battle-worn admiral,
Colonel Tigh's a little like John McCain,
Starbuck is a hothead, Apollo is sensible,
There's a lot of unresolved sexual tension there.

And even as the Cylons hunt us,
They do it in a sexy way
And they're helping us explore the difference between man and machine,
The very nature of our own humanity.
