Searching for answers
I'm trying to find
Peace for these wars
Going on in my mind

Circumstance holds me
That leave me at Your feet
I'm praying for mercy
Lord, can You hear me
I know You can hear me

Chorus
With all of my heart
I am calling to You
With all of my heart
I am reaching to You

I know there are millions
Searching for Your ear
Sharing their troubles
Their questions and their fear

But I know that You have
A place reserved for me
So, Lord, I come, unworthy
So shed Your grace on me
Won't You shed your grace on me

Repeat Chorus to end
