Promises:

When the memory fades and you're so far away will you remember that day that we changed everything and the way we would sing in the morning and the time that went by we were learning to fly finding out about everything no one knows it but i can still recall when i try how it felt to have everything the way i look back its the way i look forward hope that i don't make the same mistake take a look around just like i did before and i try to live up to the promises that we made all the marks that we made all the games that we played will you remember the way just like another surprise we'd uncover our eyes to the coming day

and if the neighbors complain and your parents start to worry well i don't mind the rain and i'll wait outside one of these days, we'll be gone in such a hurry gonna take that train just as long as they'll let us ride

when the memory fades and your so far away will you remember that day?
