The Ride:

It seems like we have
such a long way to go
not moving to fast
but never moving to slow trying to get over what you told yourself to get by,

Dog tired and losing sleep you can't think about
all of the thoughts
that you lost in between polarities shift
when you're adrift in uncertainty all that you see
is a dream you believe to be outside of your head
but your head is the malady try as you might
it doesn't help much to fight

and all of your instincts are twisting inside
you decide it's all right
to go for the ride.

Daydreams and other things you forgot about
turning around and you found you know better know without this exposure and the time that it takes to hide

Missing all the mystery perfecting the lie
dots you disconnected
while your trying to get by foot to the floor
and you let out a sigh
and you find you have time to go for the ride.
