Wake up, purify
All I want is to get through the day
Same scene, everywhere
Growing tired of the desperate rate
If I knew then
You were here
All alone
Feeling low
In a state of release
If I knew now
How to learn from the past
I would be who I wanted to be

Hard rain, falling down from above
There's no need to complain
We fall just as hard

To the ground each and every day
If I knew now
It would be
You and I
Here alone
I would break down and cry
And if knew then
As a child
So naive
Everything I have learned the hard way

Real cold
Shivering
I don't know if it's life or the air
The worst part of it all
Is I don't really think that I care
