In the Pallit's Fair here my name may never be

Anywhere is home when he is only there
Anywhere is home let come and go what may
Anywhere I roam he keeps me all the way
So for his fear sake my cross I'll neatly bear
Anywhere is home if Christ my Lord is there

But I press along still looking up in prayer
For it's home sweet home if Christ is only there
Anywhere is home let come...
