A woman on the radio talks about revolution when it's already passed her by but Bob Dylan didn't have this to sing about you know it feels good to be alive

I was alive and I waited waited
I was alive and I waited for this Right here, right now, there is no other place I want to be Right here, right now, watching the world wake up from history

I saw the decade in, when it seemed the world could change at the blink of an eye
And if anything then there's your sign of the times

I was alive and I waited waited
I was alive and I waited for this Right here, right now

I was alive and I waited waited
I was alive and I waited for this
Right here, right now, there is no other place I want to
history

history

Right here, right now, watching the world wake up
