Sometimes, it's the only thing we can do to move on
I know it's hard but you got to do it
The one thing I really deserve to know, why?

Guess you know, that I came back to tell you
You got to go and I said, ?I'm tired of these lies?
Hit the door, 'cause everything that I been finding
Is telling me that, ?You're not really respecting me?

It's hard but this is what I gotta do
I never thought that I would say goodbye to you
I took all that I could but now I'm through
So through with you, so through with you
And all I wanna know girl is tell me

Why, why didn't I know? You confused me so
Maybe there was no one in love but me
How could this be? Not what I need
'Cause there was no one else in love but me

It's personal, girl, the way that you tried me
All I wanna know is, did you think I would die?
Oh, it hurt me so bad, but I got back up on my two feet
Just to stand my ground, now it's coming back around

It's hard but this is what I gotta do
I never thought that I would say goodbye to you, bye, bye, bye, bye
I took all that I could but now I'm through
So through with you, so through with you
And all I wanna know, baby

Why, why didn't I know? You confused me so
Maybe there was no one in love but me
How could this be? Not what I need
'Cause there was no one else in love but me

All the trust I had, can't believe it's gone
Can't believe that it's gone, packing up your bags
Leaving you alone, gonna find somebody new
Who treats me better than you, appreciates what I do
Appreciates what I do for you, baby, tell me

Why, why didn't I know? You confused me so
Maybe there was no one in love but me
How could this be? Not what I need
'Cause there was no one else in love but me

Why, why didn't I know? You confused me so
Maybe there was no one in love but me
How could this be? Not what I need
'Cause there was no one else in love but me

Why, why didn't I know? You confused me so
Maybe there was no one in love but me
How could this be? Not what I need
'Cause there was no one else in love but me
