[Intro]

Baby, there's something that I just wanna tell you
And, you know I never needed you more than I need you right now

And I swallow my pride and
I'm really ready to listen
Just come to me
Tell me I'm the one

Oh baby, come to me
Say you'll love me over
I really need to be
Your one and only lover
I can give you what you need
Say you'll love over
Oh can't you love me over again

Said I need to know
About the way you're feeling, baby
Cuz in my heart love just wants to grow, oh
So I'll move it slow
Because there's no real way of knowing
If you feel the same and want to show, show me

Oh baby, come to me
Say you'll love me over
I really need to be
Your one and only lover
I can give you what you need
Say you'll love over

Oh can't you love me over again

You're my baby girl
And nothing else could ever matter
When we love I just can't get enough
But if we move too fast
Then we regret the morning after
When will there be time enough for us, for us

Oh baby, come to me
Say you'll love me over

I really need to be
Your one and only lover
I can give you what you need
Say you'll love over
Oh can't you love me over again

You make me feel so brand new
I just wanna spend my time with you
And I'll never let someone so true
I just wanna love you over

Oh baby, come to me
Say you'll love me over
I really need to be
Say you'll love over
