I'm working hard, 50 hours a week paying for the car
And the house we had built on the boulevard
And as soon as you get home
You want to start with something negative

Besides physical harm what do you give?
And you make lots of noise for someone who sits
At home all day watching 'One Life To Live'

You ain't right
(You ain't right)
No, no, no
I, I thought you loved me, yeah
(You ain't right)
No, no, no

We're supposed to be a team
At least you could do things like cook and clean
When I ask you what's up you start looking mean
Smacking your lips like you're still a teenager

And I'm sick of this
How did I end up in this predicament?
I would rather go somewhere and pitch a tent
Then stay here with you acting ignorant

You ain't right
(You ain't right)
No, no, no, no
I thought you loved me, yeah
(You ain't right, no)
You ain't right
(No)
No, no, no, no, no, no

You shouldn't take for granted, my love
(My love)
'Cuz one day it could be gone
Gone, gone, gone, gone, yeah

Gave you the best of me and my love
(Oh, I gave you the best of me)

I gave to you and you gave me none
All that we've been through

You just ain't right, no, no
(You ain't right, no, no)
Baby, I thought you loved me, yeah, oh
(You ain't right, no, no)

You don't love me at all, no, no, no
(You ain't right, no, no)
I thought you loved me
(You ain't right)
All the things that we've been through
(No, no)
