"Fur Coat"

You were singing alone,
I called you on the telephone
The fur coat in your room roamin around like animals do
You look so nice in soft and kinds eyes

You were so nice
Won't you come alive
You were dancing along
Singing "everything" I didn't know

I want to know your name
It's not that it would matter anyway
You looked so nice in soft and kinds eyes

You were so surprised
Won't you come alive
There was nothing to do
Lay around your dusty room

She uses her toes, changing channels to the radio
You look so nice
Can I stay the night?
You were so surprised in soft and kind eyes.
