All the different reasons why you sleep alone
I sleep alright
Four more hours to go
I'm counting down.

I'm leaving town
Everyone is catching on
They all know...I'm barely hangin' on

Love is holding on to you, but it let go of me
Love is holding onto you
I finally can see
Love was holding on to you, then it let go of me.

I was certain love had died, but she makes me feel alive
It's getting easier, and you know
Every connection that was made
I watched it rot away.

A cold, deep down your bones
Everyone is cathing on
They all know...I'm barely hangin' on

Love is holding on to you, but it let go of me
Love is holding onto you
I finally can see
Love was holding on to you, then it let go of me.

Not 15 anymore
Not like before
Never getting over it
Is that your ghost coming 'round?

All over this town
Never getting on with it
Love was holding on to you
Let go of me
