I've written a
Brand new page
It's easier when you know
You're going the right way

Have
You ever thought
That if we just stopped thinking
We'd get exactly what we Want
What exactly do we want?
Let the record show
That I've pushed through
To find a new Way of seeing and hoping
And I plan on waking soon

I've
Written a brand new page
It's easier when you know
You're going the right
Way

I just never learn
It's always the same fork in the road
And I
Turn
Without knowing where I wanna to go
It's redundant but I'm hoping that
It lasts

Cuz the heavier the sleep the weaker the reason to think
And
Sleepless nights mean something worth being awake for

I've written a brand
New page
It's easier when you know
You're going the right way

So try your Best to finish your Conversations without regret
Cuz left unsaid
Your soul
Will start to ache
From putting up a fake facade

Just say what you wanna Say

You're hopelessly bound
I'm escaping this town
This train of thinking
Is dragging us down
So tell me what my future is
If I choose not to Live

It's not enough
We're breaking up and out of sight
Just give me some

Time to think
And it will be alright
If it was up
To me we'd be just Fine
Fine for tonight
