When I'm Walking with you what is still unknown has caused my fear to grow fear of thoughts unseen but with your embrace i know i can face

all that's facing me

clouds assume command sky unrolls it's wrath firmly still i stand there's no turning back

chorus:
i need you to hold me
when the storms begin to rage
cause you know me
and you know that i'm afraid though i'd rather go 'round but i'm following now so i'll trust that we'll make it through just help me remember i'm never alone

chorus:
i need you to hold me

walking with you
