Make up your mind, take me or leave me
I'll be doing fine with or without you
I'm wasting my time letting you deceive me
The truth is in your eyes but I deny what I'd seen
And time and time again

I let you get back under my skin
I let you break me down again
I let you in close way too close
But I see through it

You gave me that smile and I gave in
And you knew that I would
Time and time again you pulled me in
Just to give me up, give me me up again, yeah

What is a dream if it doesn't come true
Well, I believe I'll find love but will it be with you
I never would have thought that such a pretty little face could Offer me so much and take all that I had
Well, I want it back

I let you get back under my skin
I let you break me down again
I let you in close way too close
But I see through it

You gave me that smile and I gave in
And you knew that I would
Time and time again you pulled me in
Just to give me up, to give me up again

I let you get back under my skin
I let you break me down again
I let you in close way too close
But I see through it

First you gave me that smile and I gave in
And you knew that I would
Time and time again you pulled me in
Just to give me up, to give me up again, oh, well done

Time and time again you pulled me in
Just to give me up, give me up, give me up again, oh
