No one said this would be easy,
take a breath and make it big.
Under water for too long and this is all you're gonna get.
Did you wanna live forever? But nothing seems to satisfy
Is there a way to make you see?
No one else would ever try.

Two steps to breaking your heart
Been dying since the very start.

You got all ways to go, people seem to see.
You keep on turning off and on and all you get is me.
Trying fight this time, wanna make you scream.
You keep on turning off and on and all you get is me.

This last cut could make you listen
This last cut could make you breath
Take this razor to my heart, to give me everything I need.
Is there anybody listening? Is there anyone who cares?
Everybody's on your side but no one seems to think that's fair.

Two steps to breaking your heart
Been dying since the very start.

You got all ways to go, people seem to see.
You keep on turning off and on and all you get is me.
Trying fight this time, wanna make you scream.
You keep on turning off and on and all you get is me.

I'm two steps to breaking your heart
Been dying since the very start.

You gotta wait to go, people seem to see.
You keep on turning off and on and all you get is me.
Trying fight this time, wanna make you scream.
You keep on turning off and on and all you get is...

Off and on all you get is...
Off and on all you get is me.
