You been givin' them all of your crush
You got them standin' in line in a huff
You know they all want to share your sweet stuff
But what you gonna do about me
I'm the one you keep on runnin' to After they've walked all over you
I'm the one who dries your lonely tears
So what you gonna do about me

Baby what you gonna do about the one who really loves
you
What you gonna do 'bout the one who really cares
Sugar what you gonna do about the one who wants you only
How long do you think I can keep on waiting here

You get a charge gettin' your selfish heart broken Seeking out that same kind of charm
When you gonna realize you're only a token
Don't want to cause no serious alarm
But when the pressure gets to more than you can bear

Pick up the phone 'cause you know I wait to hear
And when you need to have a little real fun
Just count on me to be the one

Baby what you gonna do about the one who really loves
you
What you gonna do 'bout the one who really cares
Sugar what you gonna do about the one who wants you
only
How long do you think I can keep on waitin' here

Let's get together, go out on the town
Go back to my place you can let your hair down
I got a few things I want to say to you
Oo - baby what you gonna do about me

Baby what you gonna do about the one who really loves
you
What you gonna do 'bout the one who really cares
Sugar what you gonna do about the one who wants you

only

Baby tell be what to do, tell me what you gonna do
