You ain't my type but I think I like you
You ain't justified but I think I like you
You ain't the right height but I think I like you
It wasn't love at first sight but I think I like you

I'm seeing kind of newer people like you
I don't like your crew but I think I like you
I don't know why but I think I like you
It wasn't love at first sight but I think I like you

Oh no, I don't know when
But somehow you seem to move right on in
It didn't look like any man I'd be with
So I decided I'd take you as a friend

After we have started spending some time
I had to stop and look at you one more time
It's been a while since someone has treated me right
I'm so glad that I have you in my life

Never thought that
You would be the one that makes me happy
Loving you has taught me to look
Much deeper than the odds can see, oh baby

You ain't my type but I think I like you
You ain't justified but I think I like you
You ain't the right height but I think I like you
It wasn't love at first sight but I think I like you

I'm seeing kind of newer people like you
I don't like your crew but I think I like you
I don't know why but I think I like you
It wasn't love at first sight but I think I like you

You and me come from two different worlds
But that ain't stopping me from being your girl
I'll be with you from now until the end
You never know when life is going your way

You ain't acting like its stupid, come in Trying to get from me whatever he can

I can't judge you by the cover your in
'Cause I've been missing out on what you're giving

Never thought that
You would be the one that makes me happy
Loving you has taught me to look
Much deeper than the odds can see, oh baby

You ain't my type but I think I like you
You ain't justified but I think I like you
You ain't the right height but I think I like you
It wasn't love at first sight but I think I like you

I'm seeing kind of newer people like you
I don't like your crew but I think I like you
I don't know why but I think I like you
It wasn't love at first sight but I think I like you

You ain't my type but I think I like you
You ain't justified but I think I like you
You ain't the right height but I think I like you
It wasn't love at first sight but I think I like you

I'm seeing kind of newer people like you
I don't like your crew but I think I like you
I don't know why but I think I like you
It wasn't love at first sight but I think I like you
