(David Foster, Greg Charley, John Winston)

You used to tell you loved me
You used to show me you cared
I used to be the one that you adored
But lately I don't feel you love me anymore

See I don't understand
What's come over you
And I don't understand
Why I let you
Treat me so cruel, so tell me

How many times, must I break down and cry
I'm confused my understanding
Was true love should never die
How many times
Will you kill me inside
Any kind of fool should see the light
So why can't I

Time after time,
I have tried and tried
To give you some space, some time
But no matter what I do, it is never enough
You just refuse to try to do by me right
Though I know I should leave
There's something holding me
I can't seem to find the strength
To set myself free

How many times, must I break down and cry
I'm confused my understanding
Was true love should never die
How many times
Will you kill me inside
Any kind of fool should see the light
So why can't I

I gave my heart and soul
I gave my all you know
I deserve better baby, oh so much better baby

You know it's just not fair
For you to act like just don't care
For you to act like I've done something wrong
Boy how could you dare

How many times, must I break down and cry
I'm confused my understanding
Was true love should never die
How many times
Will you kill me inside
Any kind of fool should see the light
So why can't I
